BASIC KNOWLEDGE OF BEARINGS

Here, we provide basic information on bearings.

STRUCTURE AND FUNCTION

A surprisingly large number of bearings can be found all around us. Take automobiles, for example: There are 100 to 150 bearings in a typical car. Without bearings, the wheels would rattle, the transmission gear teeth would not be able to mesh, and the car would not run smoothly. Bearings are used not only in cars but in all kinds of machinery such as trains, airplanes, washing machines, refrigerators, air conditioners, vacuum cleaners, photocopy machines, computers, and satellites. Bearings enhance the functionality of machinery and help to save energy. Bearings do their work silently, in tough environments, hidden in machinery where we cannot see them. Nevertheless, bearings are crucial for the stable operation of machinery and for ensuring top performance.

The term bearings incorporate the meaning of “to bear”, in the sense of “to support” and “to carry a burden.” This refers to the fact that bearings support and carry the burden of revolving axles.

STRUCTURE

The ball bearings and roller bearings pictured to the right represent two typical types of the most basic bearings, known as rolling bearings. Rolling bearings are made up of four elements: an outer ring, an inner ring as well as rolling and cage elements and have an extremely simple basic structure.

SEGMENT WISE PERFORMANCE

During the current year, ball and roller bearings have been the primary business segment for the Company.

Function

The basic function of bearings is principally to reduce mechanical friction. Reducing friction means:

1. Machinery will run more efficiently
2. There will be less frictional wear, extending the operating life of the machinery
3. Preventing abrasion burn and avoiding mechanical breakdown

Bearings also contribute to lower energy consumption by reducing friction and allowing the efficient transmission of power. This is just one way in which bearings are environmentally friendly.

Types of Ball Bearings and Roller Bearings

A brief overview of typical bearings is presented as follows.

1 Deep groove ball bearing	2 Angular contact thrust ball bearing	3 Thrust ball bearing	4 Cylindrical roller bearing
 This is the most widely used bearing in the world.	 In this type, the rolling element meets the inner and outer ring raceways at a contact angle. This bearing can carry radial and axial loads.	 Thrust ball bearings are capable of handling loads in the axial direction (axial loads). They can support heavy loads.	 The rolling elements are the cylindrical roller type.
5 Tapered roller bearing	6 Self-aligning roller bearing	7 Thrust needle bearing	8 Cage and roller
 The rolling elements are of the tapered roller type. Because the rollers are tapered, this bearing is able to carry combined axial and radial loads.	 This bearing has an automatic aligning function to compensate for minute misalignments between the inner and outer rings during operation.	 This bearing is used in parts such as compressors that deliver the air in automobile air-conditioning units.	 This is one of several kinds of bearings used in vehicles' manual transmissions. It is required to be highly durable.

WORKING IN HIGH PERFORMANCE TEAMS

Good teamwork brings the best in every member, binds the team to the culture of excellence and continuous improvement, and helps overcome failure while systematically discovering better ways to do things. At Vishal, initiatives like Quality Circle and MOVE provide platforms for our employees for collaborative teamwork. ## MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

GLOBAL ECONOMY

The global trade outlook may be at risk of downside due to renewed bottlenecks in the supply chain and weaker-than-anticipated global demand. The intensification of trade protectionism, fragmentation of trade networks, and security concerns about supply chains could further exacerbate trade concerns, leading to a slowdown in trade growth and supply chain disruptions.

The economic forecast for the next ten years predicts a prolonged period of turbulence and unpredictability for businesses. Following the conclusion of regional recessions in 2023, global growth is expected to decelerate once more, with mature markets contributing less to global GDP in the coming decade. A portion of this deceleration can be attributed to the inherent convergence of previously fast-growing economies such as China and Korea. In addition, the recent sluggishness may be attributed to slow progress in implementing structural reforms, escalating trade tensions, declining direct investment, and a slower adoption of innovation and technology in scattered regions. Nevertheless, companies can still capitalise on investment prospects in mature markets that require innovation to offset the decline in labour force. Furthermore, emerging markets present opportunities for investment in physical and digital infrastructure, owing to their large and young labour force.

INDIAN ECONOMY

Global uncertainties will weigh on growth this year, and India will need a strong rebound in investments to attain sustainable growth.

India is bound to get impacted from these global developments. However, several analysts remain optimistic about India's economic outlook in 2023. Domestic demand-led growth will provide India with the necessary momentum to post reasonably strong growth this year. Despite global challenges, India has achieved an impressive growth of 7.2% in FY 2022-23, supported by local consumption and a favorable policy environment, as well as a stable political democracy.

Our overall outlook for the Indian economy remains positive – the country is expected to retain the top spot throughout FY 2023-24, with a growth rate of 6.5%. We expect investments to see a turnaround and thrust the economy into sustainable growth. Private capex is also expected to rise as corporations strengthen their balance sheets and gain access to more credit financing. Well-capitalised public sector banks are increasing credit supply, resulting in remarkable credit growth for the Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises (MSME) sector. The Government's Emergency Credit Linked Guarantee Scheme (ECLGS) is further supporting this growth.

All in all, this economic expansion is expected to boost business confidence and kickstart the virtuous circle of job creation, income, productivity, demand, and exports supported by favourable demographics to fuel the growth of the Indian economy.

However, the road to higher growth rate for the Indian economy is expected to be longer. Continued inflationary pressures, geopolitical crises, supply chain reorientations, will weigh on the outlook. At this point in time, investments will be critical to meet India's rising demand and are expected to be the primary drivers of growth, along with the Government's capital spending playing a major role.

ROLLER BEARING INDUSTRY

Roller Bearings are a type of rolling-element bearing that uses cylinders (rollers) to maintain the separation between the moving parts of the bearing (as opposed to using balls as the rolling element). The purpose of a roller bearing is to reduce rotational friction and support radial and axial loads. Compared to ball bearings, roller bearings can support heavy radial loads and limited axial loads (parallel to the shaft).

Global core Roller Bearing manufacturers include SKF, Schaeffler etc. The top 5 companies hold a share of about 60%. Europe is the largest market, with a share about 24%, followed by China and North America with the share about 23% and 19%.

The global Roller Bearing market is valued at US$ 19220 million in 2020. The market size will reach US$ 29630 million by the end of 2027, growing at a CAGR of 5.4% during 2021-2027.

Bearings are antifriction components that help improve the mobility of components. Different types of bearings are manufactured depending on the task specificity, such as roller bearing, sensor bearings, plain bearings, ball bearings, and others. Roller bearings are equipped with cylindrical rollers with high radial load capacity. The increase in demand for roller bearings is directly related to the growth in production of high-performance industrial machinery.

Increase in usage of heavy machinery in the construction industry and high demand for application specific bearings drive the market. Rise in investment projects in mining, infrastructure development, and transport infrastructure development fuel the growth of the market. Moreover, increase in number of offshore wind farms results in greater adoption of roller bearings. However, roller bearings incur high installation costs and complex maintenance operations are few factors that are expected to hamper the growth of the market.

The global roller bearings market is segmented on the basis of product type, end-user industry, and geography. On the basis of product type, the market is classified into tapered, needle, spherical, cylindrical, and thrust. Based on the end-user industry, the market is divided into electrical, automotive, agriculture, construction, energy & power, and others (general engineering, aerospace). By geography, the market is analysed North America, Asia-Pacific, Europe, and LAMEA.

The key players operating in the global roller bearings industry are NTN Corp., SKF AB, Brammer, NBI Bearings, RCB Bearing, Timken, Schaeffler AG, NSK Ltd., C&U Group, and JTEKT Corporation.

INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENT

The Company is in the Business of Ball and Roller Bearings which has applications in Automobiles, pumps, gear boxes, heavy earth moving equipments and industrial sectors. Predominantly the Company deals in Bearings required by the Automobile Industry and gear boxes. The growth of the Bearing Industry is primarily dependent on the growth of OEM and After-Sales Markets and can be more closely related with the Automotive and Industrial Sectors.

Most of the demand for bearings in the Indian Market comes from the automobiles sector, whereas the requirement for Industrial Bearings is well spread out over different varieties of bearings. There is a wide range of different kinds of bearings and in different sizes with specific purposes depending on the end application of bearings. Whereas there are many Indian players in the production of different types of bearings, most of them are producing automobile bearings, while some are producing bearings which find use in the Industrial sector.

Like all other manufacturing Companies, the bearing manufacturers in India, have also been severely impacted due to Covid-19 over the past two years. However, the revival seems promising, and the future appears to be good.

Due to so many developments in the last few years, the economic scenario has changed very fast. The Government has introduced many reforms like the introduction of the GST, which replaced VAT and other taxes. The demonetization and many other reforms in the long-term interest of business and economy of the Country also had short term impact on small businesses and industries. The COVID-19 also severely affected the lives and businesses for more than two years, particularly due to the lockdowns introduced by the Center and State Governments. This also resulted in huge loss particularly to small and medium scale industries and businesses. However, the overall economy, after a big struggle, is now normalizing with the active assistance of the Government to revive trade and industries. The overall turmoil of these last few years has also affected the business of the Company.

Roller bearings have wide ranging applications and are critical to industrial progress. With the world's industrial nations planning to move their supply chain away from China, and India likely to be one of the beneficiaries of such a move, it would continue to remain a fast-growing major economy in the world and is expected to be one of the top three global economic powers over the next decade. Market growth in the Indian mobility industry for both people and goods have a very large potential given the geographical spread and size of population- an aspirational young population spurs personal mobility while the need to establish strong supply chains between producers and markets drives growth for goods mobility. Also new vehicle models are being constantly introduced; there is expansion of the public transport systems, dedicated freight corridors for movement of farm produce.

Your Company's installed manufacturing capacity will enable it to continue offering a wide range of products to its customers once demand revives. Customer relationships and contact are the focus areas to reassure them that quality products delivered in a timely and cost-efficient manner will be our priority.

FUTURE OUTLOOK

Recovery in global growth will largely be a function of how countries contain the pandemic and bounce back from its negative impact. Access to medical interventions, effectiveness of monetary policy support, exposure to cross-country business is important to drive the recovery. With the world's largest vaccination drive currently underway in India, there is hope that the pandemic will stay in control and there would be no lockdowns to affect output and income.

FY 2023 is likely to be a better year with several economic indicators such as power demand, rail freight, e-way bills, GST collection, steel consumption, among others trending positively and could lead to economic recovery. Favorable Government policies to support the Indian manufacturing industry and the emphasis on spending for building infrastructure for roads and mass rail transportation, vehicle scrappage policy and forecasts of a normal monsoon which will aid rural income are all expected to aid demand for new vehicles. Continuous innovations and new launches, by way of hybrid fuel efficient vehicles will further propel demand and allow the industry time to adjust their production facilities to meet the new requirements for the introduction of Electric vehicles, which are expected to constitute a reasonable proportion of vehicle production between 2025 and 2030.

SEGMENT WISE PERFORMANCE

During the current year, ball and roller bearings have been the primary business segment for the Company.

OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

The long-term prospects for the Indian economy remain bright owing to the growth of internal consumption. Demand for personal vehicles will be driven by the aspirations of the rising middle class with improving purchasing power and disposable incomes. Rapid urbanization will drive the need for public transportation. As India addresses the twin challenges of inclusive growth and sustainability, even a normal monsoon, with improved availability of rural finance, will positively influence demand for motorcycles as well as agricultural tractors. The overall mobility sector is expected to benefit from continued growth in the longer term.

The domestic bearing industry is facing the following threats:

- a) The menace of spurious bearings continues to adversely affect the industry. As per estimates roughly one in every four bearings sold in the replacement market is fake/ of inferior quality presenting a threat to unsuspecting users. The problem continues owing to the slow legal process, in spite of industry-wide efforts to thwart unscrupulous suppliers.
- b) With global demand weakening resulting in idle/ low utilization of installed capacities, the industry must work on enhancing operational efficiencies and flexing costs further with supply chain readiness to help counter these additional costs.
- c) Regulatory demands on emission levels, improved safety norms, higher expectations for improved reliability of the vehicles and the need for readiness to meet requirements for the new fuel efficient and environmentally friendly vehicles may result in need for investments in newer technology, research, and development. This could cause a higher burden of fixed costs. Of course, the industry and your Company have to continuously explore ways and take all measures to produce consistently high-quality products cost effectively to counter the threat of cheap imports.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the independence requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on these financial statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, are of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon.

Based on our audit of Financial Statements of the Company for the period under review, we did not come across any material Key Audit Matters to be communicated in our report.

Emphasis of Matter

We draw attention to Clause ii(b) of Annexure B to this report on material differences in amounts reported in quarterly statements filed by the company as compared to books of accounts. In the opinion of the management of the company, the said quarterly statements need to be submitted on respective due dates, pending the finalization of books of accounts. However, the books of accounts are to be considered as final, hence our opinion is not modified in this regard.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including annexures to Board's Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements, or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect, to the preparation of these Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) prescribed under Section 133 of the Act, read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules 2015, as amended. The Management and Board of Directors of the company are responsible for the maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act, for safeguarding of assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the financial statements by the Management and Directors of the Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Ind AS financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Sas will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Ind AS financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. we are also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has an adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Ind AS financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Ind AS financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Ind AS financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Ind AS financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters, if any identified. We describe these matters, if any in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained, insufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls system over financial reporting of the Company.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2023, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
